Barbara Boxer is part of a staggering trend, with the trend set to continue for some time. The Associated Press reported on Sunday Boxer lost her latest primary fight by a margin of 54 to 46 percent, despite the fact that Democratic National Committee leaders and allies poured millions of dollars into her race and workers identified with her successful political career poured work into the campaign. That is, unless you believe "money doesn't matter," which hardly seems to be the case for the Democrats.
